

Directions To Camp Wakpominee

Listed below are the directions to Camp Wakpominee. This is the route the Troop will take as the trailer can not go on parkways. For those coming up on Wednesday alternate routes are available to avoid some tolls, however, you should find your way to the I-87 (Northway) just north of Albany and follow directions from there.

The Troop will plan on 2 stops on the way to camp. The first will be a quick bathroom break at one of the following rest areas; 1: Sloatsburg which is at mile post 33 between exits 15A and 16 (~110 miles from home, 155 miles to camp); 2: Plattekill which is at mile post 65 between exits 17 and 18 (~142 miles from home, 127 miles to camp); 3: Malden which is at mile post 103 between exits 20 and 21 (~180 miles from home, 85 miles to camp). The selection will be based on need. The second will be on I-87 at a rest area between Exits 17 and 18 for a bathroom break, lunch, and uniform change (Class A shirts needed upon the entrance into camp). This is the last stop before camp about another 12 miles to go.

Please note the BSA regulations require that pre-planned stopping points be assigned and that cars not try to follow too closely to the car in front. All drivers should be aware of the pre-planned stops and if an additional stop is required a cell phone chain call should be made to inform all drivers.
